

A BRILLIANT START RIOT BEGAN

Opening Night at the Carnival Was Most Gratifying—Thousands Attend—Crowds Still Coming.

The crowds are here and the carnival is in full swing. Last night at 7:30 o'clock the gates were thrown open to the public, and the crowds surged in.

Thousands of people lined the streets when the Elks, headed by the marshals, officers of the Elks, Mayor Lang and Dean's band, marched triumphantly up Broadway to the grand entrance, which was ablaze of electricity.

It was here that Mayor Lang, who was riding in a carriage with Director General Lagomarsino, holding the large key, emblematic of the freedom of the city, turned the key of Paducah over to the director general and formally gave the town over to the Elks. Amid cheers from thousands of throats he made the following address:

Ladies and Gentlemen—In these days of mad racing for wealth, when we live two days in one day, and the duties of two weeks are crowded into one, it becomes a necessity to devise some means which will relax the tightly strung nerves and give rest to the over-taxed brain.

A means by which this end may be attained should be hailed with delight by the whole people and the projectors thereof should have their comfort and support in their arduous labors. Such we claim this carnival to be.

Figuratively speaking, "throw physic to the dogs" for a season, and let's take a new lease on life in the way nature intended we should; in a week of fun with freedom from care.

The word—carnival—from the Latin words, Caro, meaning flesh, and Vale, meaning farewell, or "farewell of flesh," was originally used to designate a festival beginning with the feast of Epiphany, and continuing until Ash Wednesday, when the fast or Lent put an end to feasting and revelry. Banquets of rich meats and drinking bouts were the chief features of the carnival in the middle ages. Shrove-tide or Shrove Tuesday was a relic from the English carnival, and was a season of unusual sport and feasting.

The various days of the carnival, the olden time, bore distinct names as Grouse Sunday, Blue Monday, etc., but we are to have one purple week of feasting and fun.

From a very early period in the world's history the purple color was highly prized and an emblem of imperial power. Ancient literature teaches that in Cicero's time this color was obtained only from a tiny Mediterranean shell-fish of the genus Murex Trunculus, a single murex yielding but a small drop of this royal color, hence its value was so great that a pound of wool dyed purple cost a thousand denarii, or about $175 of American money.

Royal purple has been the insignia of noble rank throughout all the ages of the world, and blended with white, constitutes the colors of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, being significant of the purity and imperial power of this brotherhood.

White is an emblem of purity, has been through all ages and will ever be. "Though thy sins be as scarlet, yet they shall be whiter than snow." We find this in sacred teachings.

The white, the emblem of this order, must be indicative of the purity of the motives of its membership in the conduct of its noble purposes.

May it not be, "pure hearts so banded in a strong brotherhood, that the order thus united has imperial power?"

Nature has given us these colors. The purple in the modest violet raising its tiny flower to the sun light in early spring time, slipping the dew drop in the morning and in the evening emitting its fragrance upon the passing zephyrs.

Nature gives us that emblem of purity in the white mantle of snow kissing the earth when the icy blasts of grim old winter have chilled the roses and disrobed the forest of its summer foliage.

Director General! By virtue of the office I have the honor to represent, by the authority of the city of Paducah, as its chief executive, it is my pleasure to give into your keeping the key to the city. This is emblematic of transferring to you the key to the confidence reposed in me by the people. You are entrusted to regard this as a sacred trust.

Director General Lagomarsino responded in a few well chosen words, and the ceremonies over the gates were opened and the crowds rushed in. Until a late hour Exhibit street and the Midway were thronged with a merry crowd. Everybody was in a holiday mood, and cheer and "confetti" mingled in glad confusion as the crowds vied with one another in their efforts to create enjoyment. All the attractions seemed to do a good business, and the streets down town, as well as inside the carnival grounds were crowded with people out for a good time.

The Dick Fowler arrived about 12:30 this afternoon from Cairo with a large crowd.

The boats are all doing a rushing business. The John S. Hopkins brought down about 100 passengers from Evansville, Golconda, New Liberty, Birdsboro, Smithland and other points this morning.

The carnival has been well advertised all along the river and much larger crowds are expected down the latter part of the week.

Nothing definite has yet been heard from Gov. Beckham in regard to his visit to the carnival this week.

The Elks at Evansville will have a carnival there beginning June 24th. The Canton Carnival company will furnish the attractions, as it is doing here.

Miss Wauvita Anglen, of Princeton, Ky., who is maid of honor to the queen, arrived last night and is a guest of Officer Frank Harlan and family.

One of the swiftest features of last night's parade was that of Mr. Walter Whitesides, representing Anderson, Ind., lodge. He is the great collar and cuff drummer and is a relative of Exalted Ruler C. E. Whitesides, of Paducah lodge.

Miss Myrtle Landon, of Mayfield, is the maid of honor from that place. She is one of the prettiest of Mayfield's many pretty young ladies.

The booths are all veritable bowers of beauty and are remarkably tastefully gotten up. They are all credits to the merchants, and seem to be greatly appreciated.

The attractions on the Midway are all good, and worth seeing. Each is first class, and is being well patronized by the sight-seers.

Mr. Charles Johnson, formerly tiler of Paducah lodge, who has been running on the Harry Brown for the past several months, was in the city a short time today.

CARNIVAL NOTES.
The confetti, the confetti!
There were over 6,000 paid admissions last night.

Did you get on to the spellers? Some of them are peachierinas.

Director General Lagomarsino is full of business. So is Secretary Atkins and everybody else.

Well, did you see the girl with the auburn hair? She is there all right.

The tin horns and other noise foundries have been going full blast.

The gates open at 1:30 every afternoon.

The special Elks policemen are all good men. They keep order wherever it is necessary, but thus far their duties have been only nominal, for they have had nothing to do.

Madame Rotare is the boss palmist, and is doing a good business on Exhibit street.

Thursday the crowd will be so large the First Congressional district will hardly suffice to hold them.

The head gymnasts of all spellers is the fog horn voiced man who parades Broadway and shouts, "See the flying lady, the flying lady!" You can hear him about half a mile and then have to stop up your ears.

Mr. Will H. Maize, the jewelry drummer, is attending the carnival. He says he has been to six and Paducah's is the best of all.

The Smithland band will be here Thursday.

This afternoon there is a large crowd in the grounds, and tonight the crowd promises to exceed that of last.

YOUNG SUSPECTS ARRESTED.
Cole Vaughan, Henry Level and Wallace Kay, all colored boys, were arrested by Officer Tom Orr this morning as suspects. They had several pairs of shoes and some clothes, much too large for them, and when asked where they got them would not give the officer a satisfactory answer. They were threatened with a ice water bath if they did not tell where they had gotten the articles, but this had no terrors for them. The boys were put in the lockup until further orders. One claims to be from Pryorsburg and the other two from Hopkinsville.

This morning the excitement continues to run high and serious trouble is feared. The sheriff has a posse of forty men and the union men are gathering at the depot where the trouble occurred. The union has a strong organization in Muhlenberg county. Miss Ellen Torian, who has been absent from her work on account of the illness of her sister, Miss Fannie Torian, returned to the High school this morning and resumed her duties. Her sister is much improved and is on the road to a rapid recovery.

The attendance in the schools yesterday was very good notwithstanding the fact that it was the opening day of the carnival.

Supt. Hatfield has issued orders to the principals of the schools not to allow ballots, for the most popular school teacher in Paducah to be brought into the school buildings as it interferes with the school work.

A BAPTIST REVIVAL.
The East Baptist church, through its pastor, L. B. Duncan, is holding a protracted meeting this week. The success, so far, has been splendid. The text last night was "Strive to Enter in at the Golden Gate," and was well delivered. There were two converts last night. Services are held every evening at 7:30 and a cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend.

Mr. Osman Ali, of Constantinople, has arrived to attend the carnival and look after the interests of the famous perfume, Oriental Bouquet. Mr. Ali was seen at his rooms and said he was tired and did not care to talk, but admitted that he would appear daily in his Oriental costume at Ochsenschlaeger & Walker's drug store and all callers could learn from him a valuable Oriental secret.

They fought over a dog fight, and young Lutz was almost instantly killed. He will be brought to Tennessee for trial.

A WONDERFUL EXHIBITION.
The famous Backman Glass Blowers, who have been sent here from the Eagle Glass works, Balto, Md., to give exhibitions in all kinds of glass blowing are the most interesting feature at the carnival and no one should miss the opportunity of paying them a visit during the fair.

It is a really wonderful sight to see the blowers fashion all sorts of handsome ornaments out of ordinary glass. A glass steam engine continually in operation, glass dresses, neck ties, pin cushions, etc., are a few of the many novelties displayed by this company. All the handsome ornaments made by the artists are given away free to their visitors.

HE IS CHARGED WITH OBTAINING MONEY BY FALSE PRETENSES.

Oscar Hymes, who has been in jail in St. Louis for some little trouble he had with his father there, was arrested this morning on a charge of obtaining money by false pretenses. It is claimed that before he left Paducah several weeks ago he sold to Mr. A. Rosenthal some furniture purchased on the installment plan from F. N. Gardner, the furniture dealer. He claimed that he bought it in St. Louis, and sold it for ten dollars. The charge against him is obtaining money by false pretenses.

Hymes is an amateur prize fighter, and married at Metropolis about a year ago a young Paducah girl named Mosely. He recently attempted to induce her to come to St. Louis but she refused. Last night he reached the city from Cairo and was annoying them at her home when the police were called and he was searched for until caught. EIGHT POUCHES SAVED

REGISTERED LETTERS AND OTHER MAIL DESTROYED IN LAST WEEK'S WRECK.

Last Wednesday there were 31 registered letters from Paducah in the mail that left for the east. Twenty-eight were in a pouch and three outside.

The train, No. 102, was wrecked at Kuttawa, and the mail car was burned.

Only about eight pouches of mail were saved, and it is not known how much was lost.

No returns have been made to the postoffice here on the 31 registered letters, and it is supposed they were destroyed, or they would have been heard from before now.

The government does not make good losses in such cases for amounts over $10.

OUR GREATEST CARNIVAL.
The auspicious opening of the Elks carnival last night was all that could have been desired, and the crowds exceed the most sanguine expectations. People are coming from everywhere, and they all are pleased. The Elks have labored hard and well for the success of this, Paducah's greatest entertainment, and the result is something to be proud of. They offer Kentucky hospitality in its most agreeable form, and to assist them in entertaining the vast throngs seem to have the co-operation of the weather clerk in a degree that is highly satisfactory. Prettier weather could not have been made to order, and the Elks are very happy over the outlook. To the officers of the Elks too much credit cannot be given. They have done their work without remuneration, and have for several weeks spared nothing to further the preparations for the festivities, working early and late. They have co-operated ably with Manager J. J. Conley, of the Canton Carnival company, represented by Mr. Gaskill, a thorough gentleman, who has provided the best that is to be had. The Sun congratulates the Elks and all who have assisted them, and hopes the results will justify present expectations. To the public at large people both in and out of Paducah, The Sun assures a good time at the carnival, and an entertainment that is well worth seeing, no matter how far you have to come to see it. Paducah is to enjoy a week's holiday, and invites you to help her have a good time, and she will help you.

MARK TWAIN AS A WITNESS.

Mark Twain was a witness for Redford Kipling yesterday in the hearing before United States Commissioner Shields in the suit brought last November by Kipling against R. F. Fennell & Co., publishers, for an alleged infringement of the copyright law, says the New York Tribune. There were so many objections to the first part of Mr. Clemens' testimony that when Commissioner Shields offered him a cigar he refused it, saying that he was afraid the defendant's counsel would object. He was assured there would be no objection, though, and took the cigar, after which he said he was ready to meet all objections. Mr. Clemens identified the elephant's head as Kipling's trademark on what is called the Outward Bound edition of Kipling's works. He then pointed out differences between the Outward Bound edition and an edition published by R. F. Fennell & Co. After naming some of his own books, he said that the titles had been chosen by himself, and that he thought a book published under a title selected by an author could be considered as having been written by that author. No other publisher would have a right to bring out a similar volume. Mr. Clemens said that he considered it very important for an author to preserve control and title of his books. His views as to the rights of an author had once been adversely judged by the courts, but since then, he believed, there had been a considerable increase in the property of an author in trademarks and similar possessive signs. At the end of Mr. Clemens' testimony Mr. Gurwitz, counsel of Mr. Kipling, said he would have him read it and make any necessary corrections. "You'll have a hard time to get me to read it," replied Mr. Clemens. "Don't you ever read your own productions?" asked Mr. Rives, counsel for the defendant. "Never, when I can get a proof-reader to do it for me," he rejoined. The hearing was adjourned for one week.

$100 REWARD.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreadful disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one hundred dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75c. Hall's family Pills are the best.

The Sun seconds the motion of the Democrat for a new market house, but suggests that the staff go up and take a look at the city hospital, which has been in the same place and of the same capacity for the past thirty years. It is a disgrace to the city and a source of regret to the people. River prognosticators say the sinking of the City of Paducah is the best.

ginning of a new series of river disasters. There are always three in succession, and they firmly believe there will be two more.

The cat is out of the bag. Major Esterhazy confesses to writing the famous Dreyfus bordereau, and says he did it at the instance of Col. Sanher, ex-chief of the secret intelligence bureau.

A CARNIVAL CHORUS.

Hurrah! Hurrah! Let's all be gay! The carnival crew are here! They filled the night with a blaze of light When they came in purple and gold bedight On the crest of a mile long cheer! And so Let 'er go! Let the red fires glow! While the motley throng pours by! From the clown, forsooth, to the gawking youth With a rocket stick stuck in his eye! From demon to sprite, From grace to fright, From peasant to knight— And 'King! From a frolicsome fay to a friar in gray. And a little of everything! Then plunge in the soul of it! Take in the whole of it! Hoop-a-la! Hoop-a-la! Push it along! Rex hastens here to us! Soon to appear to us! Bringing high cheer to us! Laughter and song! Gloom looks prohibited! Ought to be gibbeted— Those who dare mope 'till the merrymen reign's through! Hail, then, to jollity! mirth and frivolity! Here's three times three to the Carnival Crew! —New Orleans Times-Democrat.

SPEND THE SUMMER IN THE MOUNTAINS.

If there is one region more favorable than another, or more suited for the health and pleasure seeker during the summer months, it is among the Cumberland and Lookout mountains of Tennessee. In these mountains, along the lines of the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis railway, are to be found many health and pleasure resorts, such as Monteagle, Lookout Mountain, East Brook Springs, Iron
Aqua Springs, Red Boiling Springs,
Nicholas Springs, Estill Springs,
Hersheba Springs and many others,
all offering attractions mostly contributed by nature.

The pleasing topography, shady nooks, green grass and splendid waters of Middle Tennessee in the highlands and mountains insure to the visitor and to those seeking rest and recuperation the very best advantages. This region is within easy reach of Western Kentucky, West Tennessee and the great Mississippi river bottom.

The facilities for reaching these resorts are the very best that can be afforded, consisting of convenient schedules, fast trains, sleeping car accommodations and everything that can conduce to the comfort and pleasure of the passenger.

Think seriously of spending the summer at one of these resorts, and write to R. C. Cowardin, city passenger and ticket agent, Memphis, Tenn., or to W. L. Danley, general passenger agent, Nashville, Tenn.,

The City of Paducah's loss to the St. Louis and Tennessee river Packet Co. will be a great drawback to the them, as this is the second disaster and loss of two good boats sustained by the company in the last thirty days.

However the places, of the boats will soon be filled, as there is no line of boats on the Western waters which are more progressive. They started with one little boat in the St. Louis and Tennessee river trade about fifteen years ago and today have one of the best paying lines represented by elegant first class steamers that navigate these waters.

The Clyde arrived from Tennessee

The city is full of people, but as

REDMEN MEET.

THE GREAT COUNCIL MEETS
TODAY IN DANVILLE.

The great council of Kentucky Red Men meets today in Danville. No delegate was able to attend from the local tribe, on account of the carnival and the unusual demands in business circles. A great deal of interest is being taken in the order here, however,
and the tribe is rapidly growing.

The Improved Order of Red Men of America is not, as some people think,
of recent origin, but is as old as the republic of the United States itself.
It is a direct offspring of that society
known in 1774 as the Sons of Liberty, who, at the famous tea party in Boston harbor, disguised as Indians, started the ball of "Liberty" rolling which has not yet ceased, but will continue until the motto, "Free and Equal," will encircle the globe. The immortal Washington was a member of this society.

After the war of the Revolution the name was changed to St. Tamara Society. The members of the Improved Order of Red Men still celebrate the 13th day of May, St. Tamara day.
Next we find the Society of Red Men, which finally, some where in 1847, the present name was adopted and the order struggled along with varied success, until the decade it is assuming great proportions, numbering in the United States more than 250,000 members.

The Great Council of Kentucky, a subordinate body under the jurisdiction of the Great Council of the United States, is composed of Past Sa-chems of sixty-seven tribes. The membership of the order in this state at present is 3,800, against 800 four years ago. At the last Great Council at Lexington only thirty-one tribes, representing 1,800 members had their representation, hence it is seen that the membership has more than doubled itself.

SUES THE CITY.

Samuel Liebel yesterday afternoon
filed suit in Justice Hook's court against the city of Paducah for $99.99
for damages to a horse which fell through a crossing near an alley. The city attorney when the matter was re-

UNUSUAL SKIN GAME

HOW A PADUCAH DOCTOR WAS WORKED IN NEW ORLEANS.

Dr. D. G. Murrell, the well known physician, has just returned from New Orleans and while in that city was arrested in a peculiar manner.

He had bought a chance at a kind of lottery and when he presented his number it called for a baby's milk bottle.

He took the bottle for a joke of course, and stuck it in his pocket and then proceeded down the street.

He had not gone far, however,
when he was accosted by a man claiming to be a special policeman and searched.

"What do you mean?" the doctor demanded.

"Where did you get this bottle?"
asked the officer.

"I drew it in a lottery."

"Well, sir, didn't you know that it is against the law to run or take chances in lotteries?"

"Maybe I did, but this was not the kind of lottery I thought the law had reference to."

"Well, this will cost you just 25 cents."

The doctor paid the assessment and departed and says if he ever gets into another skin game it will not be of that kind.

EDUCATIONAL WORK.

IT IS THOUGHT THE Y. M. C. A.
WILL MAKE A SUCCESS
OF IT.

Professor H. Clay Smith, local Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. will go to Princeton Sunday to conduct a "Men's Meeting." This new feature of Y. M. C. A. work will no doubt prove very successful as it was tried once before when Mr. Abalom Knox was the local secretary. The educational committee met last night and discussed the subject. The feature will be inaugurated in the fall,
but the courses of study have not yet been mapped out.

Secretary Ecott said that about four different studies would probably be selected for the beginning and more added when the work had gotten fairly started. Assistant State Secretary F. J. Michel left for Greenfield this morning where a conference will be held the latter part of the week.

ished by the end of the month.
